Manuscript Information
Manuscript ID:	14834560
Manuscript Title:	Environmental Isolation Must Be Carried out before the Construction
Evaluation Report
General Comments	The article has important information for the local scientific community. The conclusions are aligned with the scope of the study and its objectives. The figures should be improved, Table 1 has acronyms that are not explained. It is considered that the article should be accepted for publication, after minor revision.
Advantage & Disadvantage	Analytical research based on information from a real case study validates the final conclusions and suggestions proposed by the authors. The experimental investigation allowed a discussion on the hazard identification table, risk assessment and determination of risk control for excavation works.
How to improve	Keywords should be reviewed (e.g., it is suggested to replace "Isolation Project" with "Structural Soils Consolidation Project". A revision of the English text is suggested. Table 1 should be reviewed, and the acronyms should be fully explained.
