Authors:

Pretty Failasufa Aziza

We greatly appreciate your contribution and are confident that your work will significantly enrich the discussions at this international event.

Below is a brief review of your abstract submission, highlighting its potential and areas for improvement:

Abstract Title	Potential	Weaknesses
Inclusive Culture: The Key to Improving Organizational Citizenship Behavior in a VUCA World - A Literature Review	The abstract addresses a critical and timely topic by linking inclusive culture to the enhancement of Organizational Citizenship Behavior (OCB) in a VUCA environment. The use of a literature review approach provides a broad understanding of the relationship between inclusive leadership and organizational adaptability, which is valuable for both researchers and practitioners.	The abstract could benefit from more specific examples or empirical findings to back up the theoretical claims. Additionally, the title could be made more concise to improve focus. Further elaboration on the methodology used in the literature review, including how sources were selected and analyzed, would strengthen the overall contribution.

We would also like to inform you that you have the opportunity to choose the type of publication for your paper after your presentation. You may select one of the following publication options:

1. Partnered Journals (Indexed in SINTA)
2. International Conference Proceedings (Indexed in Copernicus)
